

Manuela Soares

Curriculum Vitae

Born in Lisbon in 1945.

In 1970, after having finished a course in Sculpture at the Escola Superior de Belas Artes de Lisboa, she went to Florence on a Grant from the Instituto de Alta Cultura. There she worked for two years with the sculptors Oscar Gallo and Quinto Martini.

Back in Portugal she took a degree in Architecture in 1980, also at the Escola Superior de Belas Artes de Lisboa.

She is represented in several private collections throughout the world, in cities like Boston, Mexico City, Recife, London, Paris, Florence and Rome.

As a sculptress she works in several fields, such as monuments, integration, interiors, serial reproductions, medals, portraits and ceramics.

Manuela Soares has also worked as an Interior Designer and she is a full time Art Teacher.
